Free Book Exchange - We have some Desmond Morris (remember The Naked Ape?) and lots of other titles - help yourself! We always welcome donated books (including children's books).

In the Vineyard - Waiting for autumn to begin - this is the true beginning of the vintage year and when great wines start. We will be mulching soon - great for the soil - water retention and nutrients are added to the vineyard as well as helping to suppress weeds. We have also let the chooks out into the vineyard again now that the grapes are all picked - they are so happy!

Best regards
